ETEC's few seconds of TV fame

Spotted us on your TV screen lately? East Taranaki Environment Collective is currently featuring in a new Lotto NZ "Local Grants" publicity campaign that showcases the mahi of Kiwis achieving extraordinary things in their communities, with help from lottery funding.

ETEC general manager Rebecca says it was fun spending time in the bush, filming. "Lotto NZ is a prominent financial supporter of our work, and we are proud to be a part of the organisation's latest publicity campaign – even if just for a few seconds!" she says.
